

Application for JD Hobden Scholarship Fund

The Dr. J.D. Hobden Awards shall provide financial support in the form of a scholarship or bursary, to individuals for the advancement of education.

Award Criteria: Applicants must have been subjected to and dealt with by the criminal justice system in any province of Canada, and demonstrate the ability, need, and worthiness to qualify for or to gain learning and experience in a trade or other profession, at any educational institution in British Columbia.

Funder: The Dr. J.D. Hobden Scholarship Fund, a permanent endowment fund held at Vancouver Foundation. Annual funding will vary year to year, depending upon Vancouver Foundation's distribution rate.

The number of scholarships awarded in any one year will depend on the Fund's balance and its governing laws.

Applicant Name:
Current location, including address so that we can write back to you:
Amount of funds applied for:
To this application, attach a letter to the Bursary Committee indicating: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> <input type="checkbox"/> why you are applying for this bursary <input type="checkbox"/> why the Committee should consider you for this scholarship <input type="checkbox"/> what you intend to study, and where <input type="checkbox"/> how you feel this course of education will impact your future

To apply for this bursary, you must also include:

- Verification of your current enrollment in part-time or full-time studies in the next academic semester at a recognized university, college, institute, or other post-secondary institution
- Your student account number
- Admissions contact at the educational institution, including telephone number and address

If you are in the process of accessing the information required above, but do not have it at the time of submission, please indicate this in your application. If you have any further comments or items that you would like to bring to the attention of the Bursary Committee please include them here:

Please submit all applications to: The Bursary Committee, 763 Kingsway, Vancouver, BC, V5V 3C2